enter the new era

Chairman Denis Cleary highlights the changes that are making Tattersall's the leading club in Sydney for the next millennium

Olympic tickets on sale through Tattersall's. No ties needed on the second floor. All day food service. New look foyers, bar and eating area. A new World-best Snooker Room. The thread between these seemingly different directions is clear.

Tattersall's is serving its Members but in new ways. And, just as importantly, we are changing to meet lifestyle and business demands from Members.

In eleven months time Sydney's Olympics will be incredible. Everyone knows that, but through the past year your Club decided to make the most of Sydney's involvement in the greatest global sporting event of our time. We worked hard to create an opportunity. The tickets we can now sell you are the best you can buy - a rare opportunity. It was negotiated because of our Club's standing in this city and the tradition of Australian sport.

As Chairman of Tattersall's, knowing that our Members can buy the best of Olympics tickets from the Club and that next year this Club will host the US National Olympic Committee during the Olympics is very rewarding. Because I believe that Sydney's Olympics, like Melbourne's, will offer all of us a priceless fortnight of experience and memory. So please, use and enjoy the Club's remarkable offer. Enjoy our Olympics.

Last month, Tatts hosted Ian Thorpe and the Australian swimming team. You may have seen it reported in the evening TV news. The swimmers' tremendous presence was appreciated by all.

Meanwhile, you will have noticed significant change in the Club. The advent of the Second Floor eating area and refurbished bar alongside the Athletic Department means we can welcome Members in smart casual attire to use these parts of the Club throughout the day. We retain the third floor dining room as a more formal coat and tie zone.

Last year we introduced Associate Cards for Members' partners. These cards allow partners to use the facilities with guests, and charge Member accounts. Ladies are now welcome into every part of the Club (excluding the Athletic Department and Snooker Room).

It's all about extending and improving Tattersall's services. In the past year, your Committee has refurbished the Club and created a World-best Snooker Room; a new place to eat named "The Second Floor"; made inexpensive accommodation arrangements with The Women's Club, Sheraton on the Park and Marriott Hotels; struck inexpensive parking arrangements with the Piccadilly and the Sheraton; balanced the books and announced a profit, plus lifted food standards.

Every Member of the Athletic Department Staff now has tertiary qualifications, and a new spa-pool has been installed.

The Snooker Room will now open on weekends for the same hours as the Athletic Department and our next project is to upgrade the Athletic Department.

We have a comprehensive plan of sporting functions to compliment the boxing, weightlifting, rugby, racing and Olympics calendar. Concert evenings will showcase Australia's best talent in classical music and more development on the food and catering area is to come.

We are at the most exciting period in the city and nation's history. Tattersall's is positioned to be part of this success. I look forward to seeing you in our Club in the near future.

weightlifting dinner

tickets are selling fast for the Tattersall's Weightlifting Dinner, to be held at the Club on Friday 12 November. Australia's most powerful men and women will be going for Commonwealth and Australian records at Tattersall's before heading off for the World Championships in Athens.

This Black Tie Evening will include a three course all inclusive dinner, with live music and dancing to follow the weightlifting.

An auction of important sports prize memorabilia will also be held during the evening. Included are:

- 1998 Commonwealth Games Flag signed by Olympic and Commonwealth medallists featuring 26 world champions, such as Michael Klim, Sam Riley, Kieren Perkins, Australian Cricket Team Members, cyclist Shane Kelly and many others
- Cricket bat from the 1981/82 Australia vs West Indies Test Series signed by Allan Border, Clive Lloyd, Desmond Haynes, Michael Holding, Malcolm Marshall.
- Tiger Woods signed golf ball (with letter of authenticity)
- Boxing Glove (in perspex) signed by the great Mohamed Ali, Joe Frazier and George Foreman.

Members should book early to avoid disappointment. time 7pm for 7.30pm cost $100 includes 3 course dinner and drinks bookings Tim Bowring on 9264 6111.

The renovations are now almost complete and I believe most will agree that the Members facilities at Tattersall's Club are now equal to, if not, the best in the country. The finishing touches to the foyers will be undertaken over the next month and I ask for your patience during this short time.

The Tattersall's Telstra Media challenge proved to be a most successful and enjoyable day. On January 15, Tattersall's Club will host a world record short course attempt in our pool, followed by a luncheon to announce the Swimmer of The Year. Limited tickets will be available to this event, you will be advised next month of the arrangements.

Unfortunately a decision was made to postpone the Classical Music Evening due to numbers. This even will be rescheduled in the New Year, combining a Guest Chef with the evening.

the Shape of the 2000 Man

(How Vince M. Sees It)

Good dressing doesn't change in big jumps, but the overall look is always getting bigger or slimmer...gradually.

Big airy shirts, bulging trouser pleats and the overgenerous sweater have been expanding their territory for years, says Vince M. Now it's time to slim down a little.

For 2000, pick a shirt that's shaped a little close to the torso, with the collar cut a little higher, without doing a Prince Charles.

Trouser legs have tended to narrow somewhat. If you are a cuff-wearing man, cut the cuffs a little deeper. You might even consider the slimming benefit of a flat-front pleatless trouser! Remind yourself how well you used to look in a single-breasted suit. It's time.

The dark shirt and sober necktie worn with the executive suit will still look good in 2000. The psychedelic necktie is NOT due for resurrection. Trust Vince M.

Summer Start

The heat is turning up, and the summer spare clothing is about to come out. Are you ready for it? Right about now is the time to start getting your body into gear for the beach. Join in a swim, boxercise, spinning or circuit class, keep up regular visits to maximise results, and you'll be in your best shape this summer.

New Casual Staff

Guy Harrison-Williams and Joel Williams have joined Tattersall's as Casual Staff Members. A former Australian Baseball representative, Guy is currently sports master and physical education teacher at Randwick Boys High. Joel has ventured north of the border to Swans territory, bringing a background that includes representing Victoria in cricket and a previous winner of the Victorian Powerade Triathlon Series.

Fitness advice on the internet

If you can't nab him in the gym, Members can now get fitness advice from AD Manager Paul Collins on the net. 'Fitness Guru' and consultant to Inside Sport Magazine, Paul is on-line to answer questions and get you clued on the latest ways to get your health into shape.

Around The Gym

- Members Marc L'Huillier (Sydney University) and Scott Fay (Easts Rugby) will battle it out on the field in the rugby final series. May the best team win.
- Footy tipsters got a great night's work-out in the Members Stand at the football stadium watching the semi-final series. Stay tuned for upcoming competitions.
- Highly motivated Member Phil Lawton has reached the final series of the Club championships at Terry Hills Golf Club – keep it up.
- Touch footy has got over 60 players tagging it out, which should make for a great final series.
- The Squash Court booking format will change in the near future with bookings allowed only 7 days in advance to accommodate its popularity amongst Members.

2 try the week fat-burning program

Fed up with letting your belt out another notch? Try this plan for 2 weeks (no alcohol) and give Paul Collins a call and tell him how you're going.

Basic to the bulge, is the fact that we all eat too much and don't drink enough water. So, let's reverse the process. Try starting the day with a small glass of water – 250ml. Then, before each meal, whether a snack or main meal, drink a small glass of water. Invest in a 1.5 litre bottle of water ($1.25 from Coles Supermarket) and drink one bottle each day separately to the pre-meal and exercising water.

Combine that with a high-fibre breakfast and you're on to a good start. Try one of the following on alternate days. Start with a glass of water, followed by:

Day 1: All-Bran cereal with strawberries

Day 2: Plate of diced fruit covered with low fat yoghurt

Day 3: Baked beans on toast or muffins – no butter or margarine

Day 4: Porridge with banana

Day 5: Plate of diced fruit covered with low fat yoghurt

Day 6: Sultana Bran with banana

Day 7: Porridge with banana

Exercise plays an important role in the shift, so visit the gym and we'll get you started on your exercise plan. Call Paul Collins now on 9264 6111.

Club Champ meets World Champ. AD Member of the Month Peter Theil shapes up against the Thorpedo at the Telstra/Tattersall's Media Challenge

World Champ Swim

It might have been more about spirit than speed, but the Thorpedo still brought his team home No. 1 in the Telstra/Tattersall's Media Challenge on 30 August at Tatt's Pool. The win drew howls of derision from members of the other three teams, who protested that having former Olympian turned journalist Duncan Armstrong on the same team was just too much of an advantage. First prize was then sportingly awarded to 1500m swimmer Craig Stephens' team with teams headed by 100m and 200m freestyler Lauri Munz and 800m and 400m freestyler Danielle Woods jockeying for third and fourth. Fourteen Tatt's Members mucked in alongside media and the elite swimmers to negotiate four tricked-up novelty relays that involved much mutual dumping of the opposition. For their efforts, they made it onto the evening news. Representing Tatt's were: Dave Robinson, Ken Glover, Andrew Torok, Andrew Coorey, John Barker, John McCosker, Peter Gibson, Richard Heath, Peter Theil, Ian Lemmey, Bob Hill, Steve O'Halloran, Robert Taylor, Bruce Fallshaw. Time Keepers: Chas Robinson, Bob Hudson, Rick Glover, Col Bowes.

Grand Final

Tatts was narrowly beaten by Cronulla in a final which could have gone either way. Mick Gillis, our nominee for Club Sportsman of the year, was in form and scored with a crowd-stopping swim-away goal. George Vernados and Adrian Bouris each had a great game to finish the season, and Peter Kennedy was ever consistent - as well as organising the team to the far flung locations for the game venues each week. Too many stars to name them all. The camaraderie after the game is always one of the best things about this Tatts polo team and post grand final was no exception.

Latest update...Tatts came in third in the Winter competition after a difficult season due to a few too many absences caused by work, travel and those winter bugs

Calcutta Run

Eddie Charlton was surprisingly beaten by Adrian Abbot. Adrian will now play Greg Mizon. Greg was semi finalist for the last two years causing him to go from a handicap of 49 to 46 this year. Greg is only steps from matching this feat and the question going around insiders is whether he can go all the way and blow his handicap off the table.

Andrew Griffin has made it through to the quarter finals and he's now due to play ex Calcutta champion, Neville Prendergast. Meanwhile, Eddie Crane plays his son Robert in the last 16. Other matches will see Bill Henneberry play the winning Crane while John Gowran will be up against Brian McElvogue in the quarters. Ian Mann is the one to watch with a performance that keeps on peaking. He'll be playing Craig Cornish in the fourth round.

Two-Up

The new Billiards and Snooker facilities got its first competition workout with the Eddie Crane Challenge Doubles tournament on Thursday 26 August. The Walter Lindrum Match Room with its permanent seating for 50 proved the biggest bonus to the capacity crowd with the majority of Members staying through to a post-midnight finish.

The winners were Frank Galanos and John Joyce over runners-up Jeff Woollard and John Simpson. Semi-finalists saw the team play of Col Pearce and Eugene Piekarski as well as Mark Twigg and John Threlfo.

PORT STEPHENS: seaside sanctuary

Dolphins, whales, native coastline. At only two hours drive from Sydney, Port Stephens offers urban dwellers a quick seaside escape

Just two and a quarter hours north of Sydney is the holiday playground of Port Stephens. Now known as the 'Dolphin Capital of Australia', the area is home to in excess of 12 cruise operators who ply the tranquil waters of the port in search of the resident dolphin population, carrying many tourists eager to see these majestic creatures surfing the waves.

Recently, whale watching has also become a major drawcard, with two operators specialising in travelling out towards Broughton Island to view the annual migration up the east coast.

Nelson Bay, the capital of Port Stephens has undergone a rapid transformation from a sleepy fishing village to a quaint resort town, well known for fine food and wine. Some say ecotourism was invented in this region, with a strong commitment to maintain a valuable balance between nature and development. To the visitor arriving in Nelson Bay, first impressions are of a beautiful native coastline, interspersed with development sensitive to the natural environment.

Secluded tree-lined beaches such as Dutchies, within walking distance to Nelson Bay marina, or Fly Point fish sanctuary, where locals will show visitors how to hand feed the fish in the bay, are a must for children visiting this holiday playground. For those who wish to undertake serious fishing, there are numerous charter boats leaving from Port Stephens Boat Hire (at the marina) Ph 49843843. Hire boats are also available for those wishing to explore the many small bays or beaches within the port.

For the sports fan, the area boasts two major golf courses. Nelson Bay is a 27 hole course, where the golfer often competes with kangaroos for space on the fairways. Horizons is a well known competition course and ranked in the top ten in NSW. Other activities include sailing, diving, snorkelling, parasailing, waterskiing or surfing on the many surf beaches located in the area.

Nelson Bay is the perfect base for a visit to this great destination. With the Hunter Valley only 45 minutes west of 'The Bay', day trips are a specialty.

There is a wide range of accommodation in Nelson Bay. From Peppers Anchorage (Ph 49842555), a unique waterside hotel, designed in an elegant maritime style with spa, steam room sauna and the well known Merretts restaurant. Weekend escape packages, including two nights accommodation and breakfast, start at $538 per couple.

Views at the Bay (Ph 49849639) within walking distance of Nelson Bay, the marina, cruise boats and many restaurants, offers comfortable family style holiday units and bed and breakfast suite. Bed and Breakfast rates are from $110 per couple per night, and units range from $60 per night (sleeps up to 7 persons).

The Women's Club

The simple clean-lined elegance of rooms at the Women's Club are just a step next door to Tattersall's. For new rates on one of the smartest sleeps in the city, see below:

Double room	$120
Twin room	$115
Single room	$100

SHAME Prior to the completion of the new spa, the area surrounding the new facility was roped off and clearly marked as a construction zone, due to freshly laid tiles. Unfortunately, someone entered the area over that weekend and walked over the freshly laid tiles. This has resulted in the re-laying of the affected tiles and extra costs to Tattersalls Club.

ISIS

Isis interiors are proud to be associated with the refurbishment of the Tattersalls Club. On behalf of our construction team we wish to congratulate members and staff on the new facility.

dress code

Tattersall's has always been about success and style. To match the new level of facilities the Committee agreed on an updated by-law that would apply from 1 September 1999.

• Dining Room, Club Rooms and Snooker Rooms (3rd Floor)

Gentlemen and their male guests wishing to use the Dining Room, Club Rooms & Snooker Room must wear a lounge suit or sports jacket with tailored slacks, shirt and tie; for female guests, a standard of dress which is recognised as conforming to that of men is appropriate.

• Members Bar and Brasserie (2nd Floor)

Smart casual wear is permitted. Jackets and ties are not mandatory - shirts must be collared with no logos and slacks tailored. Braces (except under jackets), headwear, shorts, sports shoes and boots, tracksuits and other sports gear are not permitted.

• Athletic Department (2nd Floor)

On week days access to, and egress from, the Athletic Department in jogging or training clothes is permitted through the front door up to 9am and after 7pm. At other times access is available through the Loading Dock door, which must also be used on weekends.

Members are expected to ensure that their guests are aware of the dress code and conform to it.

Flemington Fever

International attention may now be focused on the richest Two Mile Handicap Race, but Tattersall's will be celebrating the Melbourne Cup in a style ahead of the rest of the World.

It is no longer simply the afternoon that Australia stops. Over the last few years, the international racing world's eye has also been increasingly focused on Flemington. On Tuesday 2 November, 1999 the Melbourne Cup will be heralded as the World's richest Two Mile Handicap, showcasing the best middle distance weight for age horses around.

The response of Australians to the running of imported horses got off to a shaky start. Last year's third placegetter Persian Punch has done much to change the tension. Insiders believe that the British horse should have won – a bad ride keeping the horse from the Cup. This year, at time of print, local punters have already made import Kayf Tara the outright favourite at 5 to 1.

Out of the Godolphin Stables, the worlds strongest training syndicate in Dubai, and owned by the Maktoum family in the United Arab Emirates, Kayf Tara has already won 8 races off 13 starts throughout Europe this year, making it one of the most powerful runners on the planet. One bookmaker was heard to lament: "May as well send him the cheque now."

Local champions Sky Heights and Tie The Knott, at time of print, are next favourites at 6 to 1. However, bookmakers are nodding to British horse Travelmate as another import to watch, being backed quickly from 40 to 1 into 20 to 1, at time of print. And Persian Punch will also line up at Flemington again.

This Australian racing icon may now also belong to the world, but that will do nothing to change the way we celebrate the day. This year, Tattersall's will be going all out in style with a Gala Cup Day Luncheon in the Club Room. A large screen television will capture all the happenings at Flemington, as a special guest compere runs the Melbourne Cup Calcutta. An expert discussion will be giving advice and tips to punters, while runners will be going between the Club and the TAB to place your bets. Sweeps and raffles will throw wins to fate, and the glamour of the day will be pushed with a planned exclusive fashion parade at the Club.

Bookings for this day are already heavy, so move quickly to be part of the celebrations.
